

Rewarding career in real estate

- * Earning potential $75K plus
- * Recruiting in Narre Warren, Berwick, Springvale and Dandenong
- * Excellent training provided

Are you interested in the property market? Do you have a passion for customer service? Are you ambitious, self-motivated and enthusiastic?

Outstanding opportunities currently exist for passionate, hard working people to embark on a rewarding career at Grant's Estate Agents – one of Victoria's real estate leaders. A career with Grant's is exciting, satisfying and offers considerable financial rewards in return for commitment and effort.

Grant's is currently expanding and is looking for real estate sales staff. Ideally, candidates will live in the south eastern suburbs and possess excellent communication, interpersonal skills and have purchased real estate.

Candidates should possess determination and a commitment to succeed in a competitive industry. Previous real estate or sales experience will be highly regarded but is not essential. Candidates must also be willing to work long hours (including weekends), have a stable employment history, current driver's licence and reliable car.

Successful candidates will be provided with comprehensive initial and ongoing training at our own training centre.
